Europe Are in Prospect

The sales of sliver buillon certificates on the Stock Exchange resterday amounted to 236,000 ounces at 90%,40%, closing at the former price, which is an increase of 14 over the closing Wednesday. Moore & Schley bought 100,000 ounces. Zimmerman 2 Forshay were also heavy buyers.

The price of commercial bar sliver also advanced 14, up to 63%. Advices from London Indicate considerable speculative buying of the white metal in that market under an advance to 34%, a rise of 2-16d, from Wednesday's quotations.

It is predicted that the shipment of silver by to-morrow's steamers will be nuusually heavy. The demand from abroad, it is said, has been slimulated by the agitation acre, winch, should it result in sliver winding the day, would advance the price taterially. European nations have to meet cequirements for subsidiary colnage and ire in the market now to secure the necessary supply before any possible material dyance.
